0026706.150

0026706.290

FEATURES

Performance, protection, and comfort—these are the key elements in helmets, protectors, and jackets. Acerbis has extended the same philosophy to its socks with the new Mx Impact Vented Socks. Designed for spring and summer, these ventilated socks are ideal for riders looking to complete their technical gear for training or competition. They stand out with a bold design and high-performance features, including reinforced padding in the shin and ankle areas. Crafted from advanced yarns that regulate body temperature and offer cooling properties, they're built for serious riders.

Even the best boots won't perform if paired with the wrong socks so make sure you have the new Acerbis Mx Impact Vented Socks in your gear bag — Because every detail counts.

FEATURES

The Acerbis X-Leg Pro Vented Socks are specifically designed for off-road riders using knee guards or braces. These long, ventilated socks feature targeted compression zones to enhance circulation and reduce fatigue. A wide silicone elastic band ensures they stay securely in place, even with intense movement. Made from a blend of polyamide, polypropylene, and elastane, they offer excellent breathability and fast drying for all-day comfort. For optimal performance and comfort during races or training, pair your knee protection with these essential technical socks.
